

ACADIA UNIVERSITY STUDY at BNUZ

May – June 2020

Deadline for submission of application is February 14, 2020

You must have completed at least one full academic year in a degree program
Students currently in EAP or about to enter the academic program in September are not eligible

Student Information:

Name: _____ Acadia Student Number: _____

School or Faculty Major: _____ Degree Program _____ CGPA: _____

Program year 1 2 3 4 5

I have discussed the courses I will take with my academic advisor and I understand it is my responsibility to ensure the credits will fit with my program requirements. YES NO

Language Proficiency:

First Language: _____

Second Language: _____ Proficiency: _____

Current Address:

Address: _____

City: _____ Postal Code: _____ Phone: _____ Email: _____

Permanent Address:

Address: _____ City: _____ Postal Code: _____ Phone [include area code]: _____

Email: _____

Next of Kin:

Name: _____ Relation: _____

Phone [include area code]: _____ Email: _____

Awards and Extracurricular Activities

List academic awards you have received, giving dates. Indicate extracurricular activities, including any offices held.

Work Experience

List work experience, with dates, beginning with the most recent, briefly summarizing position. Include volunteer work (past 3 years)

Cross Cultural Experience Explain what you have learned by living in another culture, interacting with people from diverse cultural backgrounds etc.

Personal Statement

State your reasons for applying for the program at BNUZ, with reference to your special interests and career plans. Explain what benefits you hope to derive from your participation.

Reference

Your reference should ideally be a professor or department head who can write one or two paragraphs concerning your suitability to represent Acadia while on field school in China. This can include academic performance as well as character suitability.

References can be emailed to: janet.harnum@acadiau.ca or attached here with this document